

I write in support of LPFM. LPFM stations deserve a place in our seacoast communities as an alternative to syndicated broadcasts run on autopilot by out-of-state organizations. With the degree of media consolidation in today's world, a locally run station is a breath of fresh air and very necessary to maintaining the balance we need in today's news. Please see comments from REC Networks and our area's LPFM Prometheus Radio Project for more information. Thank you.